

Employment zones reform implementation

Searching and making a submission

This step-by-step guide explains how to:

- Use the spatial viewer to see what zone is being proposed for a specific site or location
- Use the 'search by address' to see a zone translation and land use table for a specific site and make a submission on the proposed changes
- Use the 'search by LGA area' to see all employment zone land use tables for a specific Local Environmental Plan and make a submission on the translation

Accessing the NSW Planning Portal

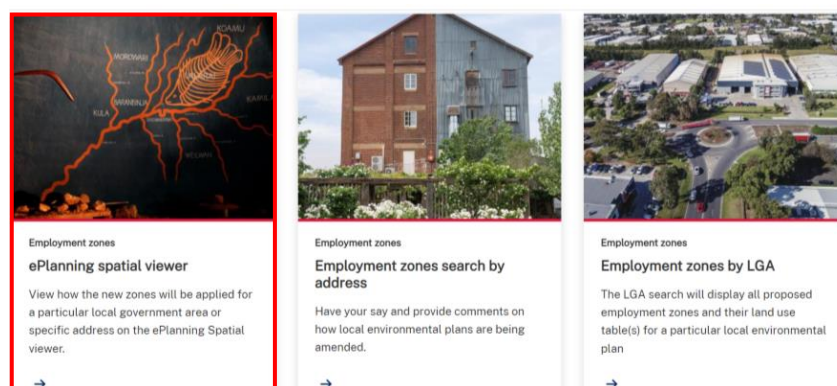

Navigate to the NSW Planning Portal employment zones landing page by going to:

<http://www.planningportal.nsw.gov.au/employment-zones>

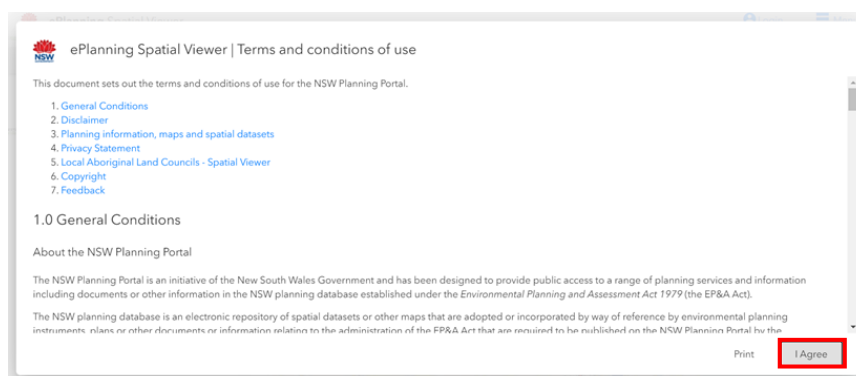

Using the spatial viewer

You can use the spatial viewer to view the proposed zoning of a site.

1. Click on the ePlanning spatial viewer tile

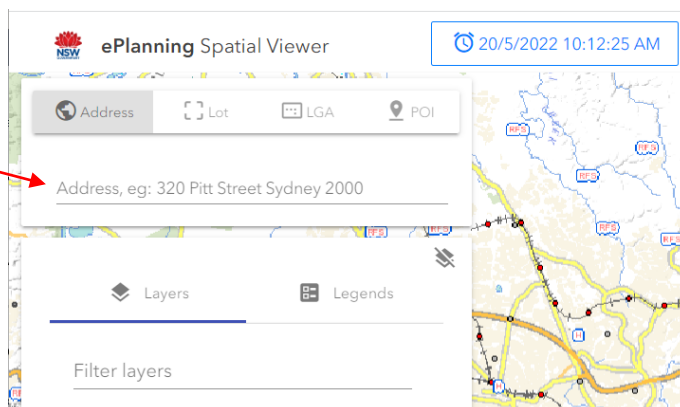

2. Read the Terms and Conditions, and if you agree, click I Agree

3. To search an address, click on the Address tab.

4. Begin to type in the address.

Note: As you type, options for the address will come up; choose the correct address and click on it to select it.

5. When you select the address, the spatial viewer will display the zoning map.

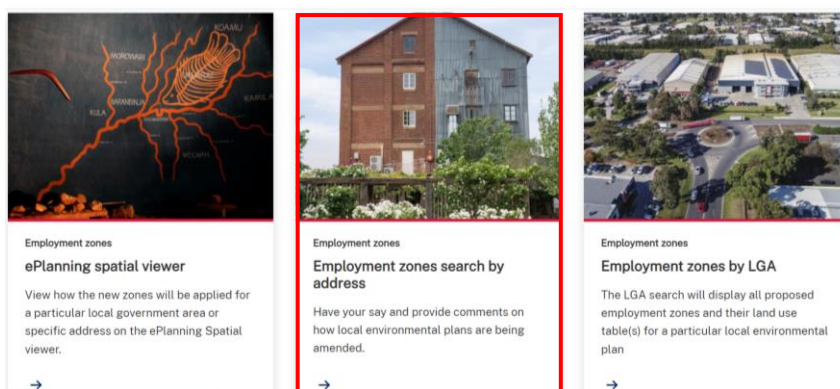

Note: You will need to turn on the Employment Zones Reform Exhibition layer to see the proposed zone

Search by address and make a submission

You can search using an address to see the in-force land use table alongside the proposed land use table and provide detailed feedback.

1. Click on the Employment zones search by address tile

2. Begin to type in the address.

Note: As you type, options for the address will come up; choose the correct address and click on it to select it.

Addresses can also be found by clicking on the specific lot in the spatial viewer, which will bring up the relevant address.

For the chosen address, the employment zones address search tool will provide a:

- Translation summary
- Land Use Tables (both in-force and proposed) and Any Schedule 1 and Local Provisions

Making a submission

Searching and making a submission

Search by LGA and LEP and make a submission

You can use the search by local government area (LGA) to see all proposed employment zones and their land use table(s) for a particular local environmental plan (LEP).

1. Click on the Employment zones by LGA tile

2. Select an LGA, then an LEP, and click on the “Show proposed land use tables” button to show the zone translation details.

Form showing LGA selection (Armidale Regional), LEP selection (Armidale Dumaresq Local Environmental Plan 2012), Name, Email Address, and Reason of interest (Consultant planner). A red box highlights the "Show proposed land use tables" button.

Note: Some LGAs have more than one LEP in force with a Business or Industrial zone which is why there may be a choice of LEP.

Making a submission

1. Before making a submission, you must enter your name and email address

Form showing Name, Email Address, and Reason of interest (Consultant planner).

2. You can then make a submission by adding feedback in the text box provided.

To provide more detailed feedback please use the search by Address tool.

Translation Summary

- Please note that there is a Comprehensive Local Environmental Plan that has yet to be finalised applying to this LGA. The translation detail as mapped in the spatial viewer is based on the in force Local Environmental Plans not the proposed Local Environmental Plan. This means that some sites identified to be rezoned under the proposed Local Environmental Plan may not be reflected in this translation detail
- Zone translation generally reflects intent of reform outlined in the Explanation of Intended Effect (EIE) with one exception
- All land currently zoned IN2 Light Industrial is proposed to be zoned E3 Productivity Support
- Land use permissibility expanded consistent with intent of the reform
- Objectives amended to reflect strategic intent of zones with some changes to local objectives
